Kiva Meridan, a gifted healer, finds herself trapped within these gilded walls, her life stolen from her by a cruel twist of fate. Accused of a crime she did not commit, she is condemned to a life of servitude, her talents exploited to heal the wounds of those who wronged her.

But Kiva is not one to succumb to despair. Within the confines of her gilded cage, she secretly hones her skills, waiting for the opportune moment to break free from her chains. And when that moment arrives, she seizes it with a fierce determination that will shake the foundations of Zalindov.

As Kiva embarks on her daring escape, she encounters a cast of unforgettable characters who will shape her destiny. There is Jaxon, the enigmatic prison warden who hides a troubled past beneath his cold exterior. And there is Lucan, a young and idealistic healer who becomes both her ally and her forbidden love.

Together, Kiva and her companions navigate a treacherous path filled with danger, betrayal, and unexpected alliances. They must outwit cunning guards, uncover a web of deceit, and confront the forces that have kept Kiva imprisoned for so long.

But Kiva's quest for freedom is not merely a battle for survival. It is a quest for redemption, a chance to reclaim her stolen life and make amends for a past she did not choose. As she heals the wounds of others, Kiva must also confront the wounds within herself, discovering the true depths of her strength and the power of forgiveness.
